

Contents

Contributors	ix
Reviewers	xi
Acknowledgements	xii
Introduction	xiii

Section I. How to deal with physical/psychological complaints during treatment and follow-up

1	Safeguarding Exercise Capacity Throughout and After Cancer Treatment	1
	Introduction	1
	Reduced Cardiorespiratory Fitness	2
	Reduced Muscle Mass and Strength	3
	Increased Fat Mass	4
	Reduced Bone Health	4
	Exercise as Medicine in the Management of Cancer	4
	Physical Activity and Cancer Outcome	7
	Physical Activity Guidelines	8
	Further Reading	9
2	Cancer Pain	11
	Introduction	11
	Personalised Assessment of Pain	15
	Procedural-related Pain	17
	Treatment-related Pain	18
	Pharmacological Approaches in Treating Cancer Pain	21
	Adjuvant Drugs	30
	Particular Cases	31

	Refractory Pain	34
	Conclusions	35
	Further Reading	35
3	Cancer-related Fatigue	37
	Introduction: Fatigue in Rehabilitation	37
	Prevalence Rates	38
	Influencing Factors	39
	Diagnosis and Assessment	40
	Treatment Strategies	41
	Conclusion	45
	Further Reading	46
4	Psychological Deterioration	47
	Introduction	47
	Mental Disorders	49
	Treatment Options	51
	Psychotherapeutic Interventions	51
	Further Reading	52
5	Mucocutaneous Changes	54
	Introduction	54
	Mucositis	54
	Skin Complaints	56
	Further Reading	63
6	Gastrointestinal Sequelae	66
	Introduction	66
	Potential GI Side Effects	67
	Effect on Patients	67
	Pathophysiology	68
	Prevention and Self-management of GI Problems	69
	Clinician-led Management of Acute GI Side Effects	70
	Clinician-led Management of Chronic GI Side Effects	71
	Conclusion	74
	Further Reading	75

7	Urological Complications	77
	Introduction	77
	Radiotherapy	77
	Brachytherapy	81
	General Chemotherapy	81
	Intravesical Chemotherapy	82
	Urological Sequelae of Oncological Surgery	84
	Further Reading	85
8	Sexuality/Reproductive Issues	87
	Sexual Function	87
	Fertility Issues in Cancer Patients	90
	Conclusion	95
	Further Reading	96
Section II. How to deal with social network problems during treatment and follow-up
9	Cancer: Social Issues	98
	Prevalence	98
	Social Problems as a Source of Distress	98
	Social Relations and Contacts	99
	Special Aspects of Social Issues in Cancer	103
	Conclusions	104
	Further Reading	105
10	Financial Issues	106
	Introduction	106
	Job Loss	108
	Interventions	110
	Compensation for Occupational Disease	112
	Further Reading	113

Section III. How to improve quality of life during follow-up

11 Lifestyle Changes	115
Introduction	115
Lifestyles and the Four Most Common Cancers	116
Lifestyle and Cancer In General	119
Summary	123
Further Reading	124

Section IV. How to merge the patients' regular cancer surveillance and rehabilitation plan

12 Survivorship Care Planning	125
Introduction	125
Survivorship Care Plans	126
Progress in Survivorship Care Delivery	129
Summary/Future Directions	132
Further Reading	133

Index	136
--------------	-----