Section I. How to deal with physical/psychological complaints during treatment and follow-up

1 Safeguarding Exercise Capacity Throughout and After Cancer Treatment
   Introduction
   Reduced Cardiorespiratory Fitness
   Reduced Muscle Mass and Strength
   Increased Fat Mass
   Reduced Bone Health
   Exercise as Medicine in the Management of Cancer
   Physical Activity and Cancer Outcome
   Physical Activity Guidelines
   Further Reading

2 Cancer Pain
   Introduction
   Personalised Assessment of Pain
   Procedural-related Pain
   Treatment-related Pain
   Pharmacological Approaches in Treating Cancer Pain
   Adjuvant Drugs
   Particular Cases
Refractory Pain 34
Conclusions 35
Further Reading 35

3 Cancer-related Fatigue 37
Introduction: Fatigue in Rehabilitation 37
Prevalence Rates 38
Influencing Factors 39
Diagnosis and Assessment 40
Treatment Strategies 41
Conclusion 45
Further Reading 46

4 Psychological Deterioration 47
Introduction 47
Mental Disorders 49
Treatment Options 51
Psychotherapeutic Interventions 51
Further Reading 52

5 Mucocutaneous Changes 54
Introduction 54
Mucositis 54
Skin Complaints 56
Further Reading 63

6 Gastrointestinal Sequelae 66
Introduction 66
Potential GI Side Effects 67
Effect on Patients 67
Pathophysiology 68
Prevention and Self-management of GI Problems 69
Clinician-led Management of Acute GI Side Effects 70
Clinician-led Management of Chronic GI Side Effects 71
Conclusion 74
Further Reading 75
7 Urological Complications 77
- Introduction 77
- Radiotherapy 77
- Brachytherapy 81
- General Chemotherapy 81
- Intravesical Chemotherapy 82
- Urological Sequelae of Oncological Surgery 84
- Further Reading 85

8 Sexuality/Reproductive Issues 87
- Sexual Function 87
- Fertility Issues in Cancer Patients 90
- Conclusion 95
- Further Reading 96

Section II. How to deal with social network problems during treatment and follow-up

9 Cancer: Social Issues 98
- Prevalence 98
- Social Problems as a Source of Distress 98
- Social Relations and Contacts 99
- Special Aspects of Social Issues in Cancer 103
- Conclusions 104
- Further Reading 105

10 Financial Issues 106
- Introduction 106
- Job Loss 108
- Interventions 110
- Compensation for Occupational Disease 112
- Further Reading 113